

YOLA is a string orchestra providing orchestral experience for young musicians, creating excitement and passion in music through a committed approach to performing. Playing in an ensemble develops teamwork, camaraderie, and a sense of community while enhancing individual skills. YOLA is directed by Linda Vaillancourt.

SCHEDULE

Rehearsals are Tuesdays, 7:00-8:00 PM
 @ Free Grace Presbyterian Church
 160 Canal St, Lewiston

The first rehearsal is January 16. Performances will be March 17 and March 24.
 Bring your instrument and a pencil.

COST

$100 covers rehearsals and two performances.
 Limited financial aid available. Contact Beth Almquist at balmquist@megalink.net for more information.

YOLA IS OPEN TO:

- ♪ Violin, viola, cello, and bass
- ♪ Players should be comfortable playing in C, G, D, and A major, and be able to read music.
- ♪ Previous ensemble experience is not required.

REGISTRATION FORM

_____	<input type="checkbox"/> violin <input type="checkbox"/> viola <input type="checkbox"/> cello <input type="checkbox"/> bass	_____
Student's Name		Years Played
_____	_____
Parent/Guardian's Name	Teacher
_____	_____	_____
Address	School	Grade
_____	_____
City, State, Zip	Other ensembles played in (e.g., school orchestra, Districts, All-State)
_____	() _____
E-mail	Phone

Return registration form to:
 Grace Note Community Music School
 160 Canal St
 Lewiston, ME 04240

building community through music
 a ministry of Free Grace Presbyterian Church